What are Related Fields, Related Credits, and Core Knowledge Areas?

In Vermont, Related Fields include degrees with a major or concentration in early childhood, child or human development, elementary education, special education with a birth to eight focus, and child and family services.

Related Credits are credits earned from college coursework that meet the following criteria:

- Course relates to working with children birth through grade three and their families; and
- Course content clearly falls within one or more early childhood or afterschool core knowledge areas; and
- Credits are awarded by an appropriately accredited institution of higher education; and
- Student earned a grade of a C- or better in the course.

Early Childhood Core Knowledge Areas: Child development; families and communities; observing and assessing; how we teach; what we teach; healthy, safe environments and nutrition; professionalism; and program organization

Afterschool Core Knowledge Areas: Child and youth development; families and communities; curriculum and learning environment; health and safety; and professionalism and program organization

For more detail about the Core Knowledge Areas and Competencies, visit the Northern Lights website or contact our staff.

What does it mean to achieve a Career Ladder Level?

You have achieved a milestone in your career pathway! A Level Certificate recognizes your skills and knowledge. By earning a Level Certificate you may also meet a requirement in the child care program regulations for staff and directors; earn a Professional Recognition bonus from the Child Development Division (CDD); and/or gain a higher score in the Vermont Step Ahead Recognition System (STARS) staff qualifications arena.
